EDITED BY ISABELLE ANGUELOVSKI
AND JAMES J. T. CONNOLLY

The Green City and Social Injustice -
21 Tales from North America and Europe (2021)

ENVIRONMENTAL AND SOCIAL SUSTAINABILITY

We are happily looking forward to our Hot off the Press edition with Isabelle Anguelovski and James J. T. Connolly

30.03.2022 // 17:00 - 18:30 // online (Zoom)

The Authors will be discussing their book "The Green City and Social Injustice" together with Dagmar Haase as a discussant

The Green City and Social Injustice examines the recent urban environmental trajectory of 21 cities in Europe and North America over a 20-year period. It analyses the circumstances under which greening interventions can create a new set of inequalities for socially vulnerable residents while also failing to eliminate other environmental risks and impacts.

INCOMING SCHOLARSHIP

Céline Janssen, PHD candidate from Delft University of Technology in The Netherlands

We welcome our first accepted incoming scholar: Céline Janssen

Céline Janssen is a 3rd-year PhD candidate from Delft University of Technology in The Netherlands. She will visit the Challenge of Urban Futures Platform for a six week period between 27th February until 9th April. Being educated as an architect and urban designer, she is currently conducting her PhD research in Urban Development Management about how governance processes in area-based development projects affect the implementation of social sustainability goals in urban areas. The reason to visit Vienna is to conduct case study research about the urban project Aspern Seestadt, and meanwhile, to learn from the interdisciplinary perspectives present at the Platform. The visit will result in an international comparative research paper that is co-written with Yvonne Franz.
